Hotel Equities Names Dwayne Rexroad Maintenance Chief of the Year

ATLANTA (April 15, 2011) – At a recent maintenance meeting, Hotel Equities named Dwayne Rexroad the Maintenance Chief of the Year for his top performance during the past year. He serves as the Maintenance Chief at the Hampton Inn-Okeechobee in Okeechobee, Florida.

Mr. Rexroad competed with other maintenance chiefs at more than 25 of the properties managed by Hotel Equities. He oversees a tight preventive maintenance schedule and keeps the hotel in excellent condition. He also oversees the daily operation of all hotel equipment, including a preventive maintenance schedule, to insure that the property is safe for both guests and staff members.

“Dwayne’s commitment, hard work and dedication to excellence have earned him this recognition,” said Phil Bullard, Hotel Equities Facilities Coach.

Characterized as a giver, a hard worker and an honest family man, Dwayne goes above and beyond the call of duty to make guests and associates happy. A leader who continues to learn and to motivate others, he exceeds expectations daily.

Mr. Rexroad lives in Okeechobee, Florida. He enjoys spending time with his wife and family.
