Hotel Equities Opens Full-Service Hotel in Houston,

Bringing a new Four Points Hotel to Houston Intercontinental Airport

ATLANTA and HOUSTON—July 26, 2017— Atlanta-based Hotel Equities opened the Four Points Houston Intercontinental Airport, the firm’s second Four Points in the Houston market. Hotel Equities serves as the management company for the hotel owned by Pari, LLC. Adam Stacey is the General Manager and Luis Matus serves as the Director of Sales.

“We are excited to open our second Four Points hotel in the Greater Houston market and further expand our firm’s presence in Houston” said Joe Reardon, SVP of Business Development and Marketing for Hotel Equities.

Four Points Houston Intercontinental Airport is conveniently located just three miles from George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH), and close to many shopping and dining options. Nearby are corporate offices of numerous aeronautics, biomedical and energy companies, including Exxon, Halliburton, GE Oil & Gas, and Schlumberger.

“Our hotel will be the ideal choice for business and leisure travelers in Houston,” said GM Adam Stacey. “The team at Four Points Houston IA offers award-winning hospitality backed by operational expertise and we look forward to welcoming our guests.”

The 123-key full service Four Points Houston IA at 1450 N. Sam Houston Parkway East features 2,500 sq. ft. of meeting space, a 24-hour fitness center, business center and fast and free Wi-Fi throughout the hotel. Guests will enjoy full-service dining at the hotel pub and the brand’s iconic Best Brews and BBQ, which serves guests refreshing, curated local beers and seasonal BBQ-style appetizers. Bombshell Blonde by Southern Star is Four Points Houston Intercontinental Airport’s Best Brew.
