Equities now operates 14 hotels in the state of Indiana. With a total of 12 airport hotels in its portfolio across the U.S. and Canada, HE’s expertise in understanding how to service and optimize performance at airport hotels makes them the industry leader in the unique and challenging sub-market.

"These additions to our portfolio highlight our commitment to expanding our presence in key markets and delivering exceptional experiences to our guests," said Al Smith, President of Hotel Operations. "With our expertise in hotel operations and dedication to superior service, we look forward to maximizing the potential of these properties and exceeding the expectations of both business and leisure travelers in the Indianapolis area."

Both hotels are near downtown Indianapolis making business travel a breeze with companies like Eli Lilly and PepsiCo nearby. Fairfield Inn & Suites Indianapolis Airport amenities include a complimentary hot breakfast, an indoor swimming pool, and a fitness center, and available suites that offer separate living and sleeping areas. Residence Inn Indianapolis Airport offers free upgraded Wi-Fi, an outdoor patio and fire pit, a fitness center and an indoor pool. Additionally, hotel suites include 50% more space than a standard room, along with flat-screen TVs, fully equipped kitchens and a grocery shopping service.

These properties are centrally located near the airport and downtown Indianapolis offering many different outings to experience in the surrounding area. Head over to Indianapolis Motor Speedway Tours and experience the Indy 500 behind the scenes. Take a couple of swings after a long day at the Winding River Golf Course. Visiting with your family? Kids can practice the ROAR at the Indianapolis Zoo. Do you want to be a wine connoisseur? Visit Oliver Winery Wine Tasting and Tours.
